SENSATIONAL SPEECH MADE

WOLTERS ATTACKS CONE JOHN-SON, RANKIN AND THOMAS IN DALLAS.

ENDS NORTH TEXAS FIGHT

Crowd of 1800 in Sympathy With Candidate for United States Senate.

(By Lloyd Lockridge)
Special to The Morning News.

Dallas, Tex., July 24.—With a look and air of dauntless fear, defiance, and courage, Jake Wolters tonight in the majestic theater of this city made his final speech in North Texas which will long live in the annals of Texas politics. Cone Johnson, George C. Rankin and Cullen F. Thomas were his targets. Never did men receive a more severe arraignment. Never did an audience go into greater frenzy at the denunciation of any man or set of men. As the speaker continued, bursts of applause and shouts ran through the audience at each utterance. He would wait calmly until it subsided, urging quiet with a wave of his hand. He would again continue only again to be interrupted by wild cheering.

He began by stating that he had conducted his campaign upon a high plane, he had discussed issues with the people of Texas. Sheppard had talked about him but his talk is harmless, he said, and four years ago he (Wolters) had stood as a target of defamers and slanderers of men. Four years ago 1200 citizens in Houston had elected him chairman of the anti-prohibition organization.

When he took charge of that fight he had expected to be misrepresented by connivanceless politicians and men fanatical in their zeal. He stood for that abuse for he felt that in time the people would understand him. And he had made this campaign not only to win the senatorship but that they might understand him, that the odium might be removed and that his fair name might be cleared for his two young boys who will follow him.

Johnson Attack Severe.
"Cone Johnson," he drawled out, "has begun it anew."

"Cone Johnson," suggested some one in the audience.
"No, Cone is too good. I have more respect for the 'coon' playing 'coon' more than for this infamous slanderer." He said here that a large corruption fund was being raised for my election. I answered at Grape Vine that he lied. (Applause.)

Wolters explained that he had published every campaign contribution received and that he was proud of the men who contributed. Likewise he explained that Morris Sheppard had become jealous of the headlines Cone Johnson drew and he also piped the infamous slander. Then the Wolters fireworks began in earnest.

"I come tonight to make good my promise made a week ago that I would pull the cloak of hypocrisy from Cone Johnson and expose him to the people of Texas that they may know him in his true light. (Applause.)

Tyler Bank Failure Cited.
In the fall of 1901 the First National Bank of Tyler failed and out of that failure grew prosecutions. The city of Tyler held $35,000 in certificates against the bank. On February 8, 1902, Cone Johnson appeared before the city council and offered it $5000 for its claim. That council had trusted him. It had often sought his legal advice. It thought he had the interests of the city at heart. Note the date February 8, when he appeared. I now read from the minutes of the city council of Tyler.

"Cone Johnson came before council and made a proposition to the council to pay the city of Tyler $5000 cash for its claim against the defunct First National Bank of Tyler. That is for its certificate or certificates held against said bank."

"Mr. Johnson stated that they had made a proposition to the comptroller to pay off certain depositors known as personal depositors, and excluded all corporations, and stated he felt satisfied the proposition would be accepted, but in order that no complications might arise, they had concluded to buy up the claims that were to be excluded by the proposition."

"Alderman T. J. Bell made a motion to accept the proposition of Mr. Johnson and that the money be paid into the treasury by Monday the 10th instant and upon payment of said amount, the city treasurer is hereby authorized to deliver and assign said certificate or certificates to said Johnson."

"He said that he made this proposition as agent for the defunct bank as arrangements would be made to pay off only personal depositors and exclude corporations, that this would be done to prevent litigation, as he was practically certain that the plan to pay off only personal depositors would go through. The council accepted his proposition. The real value of the certificates was later ascertained to be $9978.41 and the city lost $4978.41 through his efforts. Now let me read you a letter written January 4, 1902, nearly a month before he made the offer to the Tyler city council. It shows that already the proposition to pay off only personal

Fearing Revenge From Gang, "John the Barber" Swears Own Testimony in Murder Case a Lie

By The Associated Press.

New York, July 24.—Fear of revenge at the hands of East Side gangsters, ever present in the minds of witnesses in the Rosenthal murder investigation, today temporarily blocked efforts of District Attorney Whitman to draw closer the lines about the men who assassinated Rosenthal eight days ago.

Apparently awed by the presence of gangsters in the corner's court, John Reiser, a barber known to the sporting fraternity as "John the Barber," retracted at the coroner's examination a statement he is alleged to have made a few minutes earlier to Mr. Whitman that he had seen "Bridgie" Webber, now under arrest, running from the scene of the murder. After Reiser had denied his earlier statement he was arrested on a charge of perjury.

The coroner's hearing this afternoon was in the nature of an examination of "Bridgie" Webber and Sam Paul, both of whom are charged with complicity in the murder. The prosecution charges it was in Webber's gambling house, near the scene of the murder, that the gang congregated to go to the place of the killing. It was to connect Webber more closely with the case that "John the Barber" was placed on the stand.
It is at the door of the "police system" that the district attorney places the responsibility for the murder of the man who had charged that the police were receiving tribute from the gamblers.

MOB OVERPOWER DEPUTIES AND BEAT UP PRISONER

OFFICERS HELD OFF WITH OWN GUNS WHILE MINER IS NEAR POUNDED TO DEATH.

By The Associated Press.

Birmingham, Ala., July 24.—A masked mob of enraged men, attacking Deputy Sheriff N. L. Parker and J. M. Smith this afternoon a few miles south of Dothan, a mining camp overpowered the deputies and beat Jim Wesson almost to death while they held the deputies at bay with the officers' own guns.

The mob had become infuriated by the story of the 9-year-old daughter of Wesson, a miner, who dragged herself into town this afternoon weak from the loss of blood and told the crowd who gathered about her that her father had come home enraged from some trivial offense and had beaten her almost to death. The members of the mob escaped and Wesson has been arrested and placed in jail on the charge of assault with intent to murder.

Dock Strikers Pray For Death of London Chief Port Official

By The Associated Press.

London, July 24.—"O, God! strike Lord Davenport dead."

This was the prayer that went up from a great concourse of workmen at Tower Hill this afternoon. It came as the climax to a parade by striking dockmen. They had gathered on Tower Hill and after Ben Tille, a strike leader, had denounced Lord Davenport, chairman of the port of London authorities, he asked the concourse to kneel in prayer. The dramatic supplication followed.

General Delivery Windows of Postoffice Must Not Be Used For Carrying on Flirtations

By The Associated Press.

Washington, July 24.—Approving individual action taken by postmasters in many large cities, Postmaster General Hitchcock has issued a general order which has the avowed purpose of checking the use of general delivery windows for carrying on flirtations and clandestine correspondence. Any persons who wish mail at general delivery windows instead of home addresses may hereafter be required to give their reasons in writing.

Many complaints have been received by the postoffice department that service at general delivery windows was being improperly used by minors, particularly young girls and by residents ordinarily served by mail carriers.

Under the postal regulations, postmasters may require all persons to furnish in writing their names and addresses and statement of their reasons for preferring to receive their mail at the general delivery.

In addition, minors may be required to furnish the names of their parents, that they may be notified and have an opportunity to control the delivery of mail to their children.

Postmasters at offices not having city carrier service may notify the parents of minors in all instances where it appears to them that the minors are using the general delivery to obtain mail under objectionable conditions.

MIKADO SUFFERS A SERIOUS RELAPSE

HEART IS WEAKER AND MAY FAIL AT ANY MOMENT, PHY-SICIAN SAYS.

By The Associated Press.

Tokio, July 25.—Dr. Mirau, physician to the emperor, in an interview this morning admitted that the imperial patient had suffered a serious relapse. Dr. Mirau says the patient's heart is weaker and he fears for its failure at any moment.

By The Associated Press.

Tokio, July 25.—The official bulletin issued at 6 o'clock this morning on the condition of the emperor was more reassuring than that posted at 11 o'clock Wednesday night. This morning's bulletin gave his temperature at 98.72; pulse 104, respiration 32. Last night's bulletin read: "Temperature 100.4; pulse over 100, irregular; patient increasingly fatigued."

The physicians remained at the bedside throughout the night, as conditions were considered unfavorable. A minister of the household said this morning, however, the emperor had slept fairly well. The acceleration of the pulse is regarded as serious, but not critical.

MANY DROWN IN MINES

Fourteen Killed as Cloudburst Wave Sweeps Into Man Way at Uniontown, Pa.

By The Associated Press.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 24.—Thirty deaths and widespread devastation from tremendous rains resulted today in western Pennsylvania, eastern Ohio and West Virginia.

From all sections come details of hundreds of buildings wrecked or completely washed away, streets torn up and bridges swept down, crops ruined, light plants put off of commission, while transportation, telegraph and telephone facilities are badly crippled.

Fourteen Drown.

At Evans station a cloudburst sent waters raging into the mouth of the Superba No. 2 mine, drowning fourteen men. A few miles away, at Lemont mine No. 2, three other men are reported to have drowned in like fashion.

Up in the Red Stone valley near Brownsville, Pa., it is rumored that at least ten miners were caught while at work by flood waters entering the mines and drowned.

At Millsboro, Pa., seventy-five miners had a narrow escape.

Debris Twenty Feet High.

Three deaths are reported to have occurred near Wheeling, W. Va. Wrecked buildings are reported everywhere, while streets are strewn with debris. In some places the debris is piled twenty feet high.

FOURTEEN MINERS DROWN.

Die as Cloudburst Waters Rush in Man Way—Escape Cut Off.

By The Associated Press.

Uniontown, Pa., July 24.—Caught like rats in a trap when water rushed into the man way of Superba No. 2 mine at Evans station, thirteen men were drowned and thirty-seven escaped after harrowing experiences. The men were drowned about 4000 feet from the mouth of the mine, their only avenue of escape. The majority of the victims were married and had large families. Several of those who escaped were knocked down by timbers shot down the mine with great velocity in the raging current. Many men were being carried back into the mine to certain death when rescued by their companions. It is stated tonight by officials of the Superba company that it will take at least sixty days to clear the mine of water, and until that time the bodies must remain in the water.

Superintendent Buttermore was the first man to see the high waters start in the man way. He raised the alarm and all the men on the outside rushed into the mine, yelling loudly as they went. In that manner more than half the miners were saved.

Relatives of the miners and mine drivers, when the alarm was raised, rushed to a large hole made by the water at the manhole and frantically threw sticks, stones, brush, poles and whatever other timber they could find into the water, in a futile effort to stop its rush into the mines. Women and children remained at the mouth of the slope, hoping to get some tidings.

Nothing could be done to avert the catastrophe. A dam that had been built around the man way a day or two ago, when the water was high, was washed away, and the water rushed into the mine so rapidly that it was filled in less than thirty minutes.

By The Associated Press.

Jeannette, Pa., July 24.—A cloudburst struck near here today. Hundreds of persons were compelled to flee for their lives. Seventy-five families are homeless. Over two thousand persons, including many women and children, were marooned on the hills of Oakwood Park where an outing was in progress. Two creeks in the vicinity of the park overflowed and surrounded the hill.

WHITE SLAVER GIVEN ABOUT SIXTY YEARS

By The Associated Press.

New York, July 24.—The limit of the law, in fine and imprisonment, was given in a white slave case today by Judge O'Sullivan. Jos. Milton, 35 years old, received what will likely work out to be a thirty-three years' sentence in Sing Sing, and also fined $5000, which, to work out, will take about thirty years.

MAIL TRAINS MUST GO EIGHTY-MILES AN HOUR

By The Associated Press.

Chicago, July 24.—That mail trains frequently are compelled to run more than eighty miles an hour to make their schedules demanded by the government was brought out today at the investigation of the recent Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad wreck at Western Springs, in which thirteen lives were lost.

WOOLEN BILLS BEFORE SENATE

CUMMINS TO PRESENT SUBSTITUTE FOR HOUSE DEMOCRATIC MEASURE TODAY.

BASED ON BOARD REPORT

Regular Republicans at Sea and Minority Divided on Tariff Question.

By The Associated Press.

Washington, July 24.—With only a partial plan of action agreed upon among the republican leaders of the senate, a three days' tariff fight will begin in that body tomorrow when the democratic wool tariff bill is taken up for amendment and passage. Before the end of Saturday's session the senate will have acted upon the wool tariff, the sugar tariff and the democratic excise bill, which extends the present corporation tax to business done by individuals and co-partnerships.

Both Forces Split.

Both the republican and democratic forces were divided tonight over the tariff problem. The break in the republican ranks came as the result of the introduction today by Senator Cummins of a substitute wool tariff bill based on the figures given by the tariff board. The action of Senator Cummins was not in accord with the understanding regular republicans had of the plan to be followed tomorrow. Leading republican members of the finance committee held informal conferences tonight to determine whether a third bill, representing their views, should be presented tomorrow. No agreement was reached, however, as to the possible introduction of a bill that has been prepared by Senator Smoot.

Democratic Caucus Friday.

The democratic leaders called a party caucus to meet Friday. The purpose of the caucus, it is understood, is to adjust conflicting views on the sugar tariff and attempt to meet the views of democrats who object to the free sugar bill passed by the house.

Senator Borah today introduced a senate substitute for the excise tax bill, a complete income tax law. It is the same measure he offered when the Payne-Aldrich tariff was under consideration, and was then defeated. Senator Clapp offered an amendment to the excise bill to strike out of the present corporation tax law the provision exempting corporations from paying tax on incomes derived from other corporations that had already been taxed.

To Repeal Reciprocity.

A Canadian reciprocity and wool tariff amendment will be offered by Senator Gronna of North Dakota. It provides for the repeal of the Canadian reciprocity law and for a reduction by one-half the Payne-Aldrich tariff law rates on wool and print paper. Senator Gronna declared that he would offer his amendment as a substitute to each of the tariff bills in the house.

No apparent progress was made today in the effort to secure an agreement among republicans on a bill to reduce the sugar tariff.

their ballot. The ballot is several feet long this year, a circumstance which will make the voting slow, and for this reason everybody who can possibly do so is urged by the county committee to vote early in the day.

According to the county attorney, a man who has arrived at the age of 21 Jan. 1, 1911, must have an exemption certificate in order to vote. In the city, men above 60 require exemptions. Persons who have removed from one ward to another, or from the country to the city since they paid their poll tax, are required to hold a transfer.

Voters are advised to vote for two, and only two, of the 22 or 23 candidates for congressman-at-large, for the reason that the ballot will be invalidated so far as that office is concerned if more or less than two are left unmarked. As for the presidential electors, all should be allowed to stand if the voter favors Woodrow Wilson for president.

Under all headings the voter should scratch all but the one man that he desires to vote for.

WHITE MAN'S TEST ILLEGAL, ATTORNEY GENERAL'S RULING

Special to The Morning News.

Austin, July 24.—Assistant Attorney General C. E. Mead has held that the "white man's test" placed on primary ballots absolutely invalidates the ballots; that there can be but one test, and it is prescribed in section 114-a of the Terrell election law, reading as follows:

"I am a democrat and pledge myself to support the nominees of this primary." He also advises that this test is mandatory and must be placed on all ballots. Ballots without that test, or with some other test, are illegal. Local committees may prescribe an additional test, but it cannot be printed on the official ballots, holds Mr. Mead.

In a number of counties the test has been changed to read that only white men may participate, etc. This is illegal, holds the attorney general's assistant. Notice is therefore given all counties that the ballots must contain the statutory test and no other.

Mr. Mead also advised a county in Southwest Texas that the law demands that the party having a primary ticket for state officers must also contain the names of candidates for county and other local offices. In the county in question, which is rather evenly divided between republicans and democrats, it was proposed to leave off all names for county offices and hold the primary exclusively for state offices. Mr. Mead said this was illegal, and further, that names written on the ballot, for county offices, could not be considered as nominees. The opportunity was given to vote for local republican candidates outside the primary and all vote for the state candidates in the primary.

Some official ballots submitted to the attorney general are in poor form. They fail to show how many candidates the voter is entitled to vote for. In some instances numbers are placed outside the names of the candidates and they are misleading. In one county the ballot contained the name of B. L. Gill as candidate for commissioner of insurance and banking, while he is an appointive officer.

COLQUITT AND SHEPPARD ADDRESS FT. WORTH CROWDS

Special to The Morning News.

Fort Worth, July 24.—Gov. Colquitt, candidate for re-election, and Morris Sheppard, candidate for United States senator, delivered speeches in Fort Worth tonight. Gov. Colquitt, who had a reservation at the Westbrook hotel, walked between two rows of women numbering 1000, who were there to greet him, when he left the hotel to fill his speaking engagement. His address, as was that of Morris Sheppard, was along the usual lines.

RAMSEY SCORES GOVERNOR COLQUITT IN TERRELL SPEECH

Special to The Morning News.

Terrell, Tex., July 24.—Judge W. F. Ramsey, candidate for governor, after speaking this afternoon at Forney and Kaufman, arrived here late this afternoon and spoke to a large crowd tonight. In the course of his speech he gave attention to judicial reform, public education, corrupt practice act, daylight saloon bill and other measures which he has advocated in his previous addresses over the state.

Judge Ramsey touched on the question of the negroes voting in the primary, saying that was being planned in some of the counties, and declared himself for a white man's primary. He read a proposal which he had written, addressed to Gov. Colquitt and all other candidates for state office, calling upon them to agree with him that any precinct in the state in which negroes might vote in the election on next Saturday should be thrown out and not counted because of that fact.

TRYING TO SAY SOMETHING.

True prophets in Texas are calling upon the Jeffersonians to rally from Rabbitts Ear creek to Elysian Fields, from Mustang island to Bovina, and choose for lieutenant governor that "true blue democrat and experienced statesman, that adornment of Texas journalism, that wise and patriotic legislator," the Hon. Wiley Mangum Imboden.

Therefore the Jeffersonians are rallying throughout the vast commonwealth, and the banners of the Hon. Wiley Mangum Imboden are flying in Blount and Fort Sunk, in Mud and Jonah, in Joy and Noodle, in Pancake and Nix, in Pflugerville and Vox Populi, in Ike and Tib, in Wildcat and Zulu, in all the brisk towns of the great state. Swift runners are out and Texas is rallying to the Hon. Wiley Mangum Imboden.

NEGRO VOTE UNDER BAN IN BEXAR COUNTY

Special to The Morning News.

San Antonio, Tex., July 24.—George B. Taliferro, chairman of the Bexar county Colquitt committee, today issued the following official statement: "The Colquitt organization in Bexar county will prevent negroes from voting in the primary. If any effort is made to get the negroes into the primaries it will be by the Ramsey people for political use in North Texas and East Texas. The Ramsey and Colquitt organization have agreed that both tickets shall have equal representation in every precinct in Bexar county."

NO NEGROES WILL VOTE.

Special to The Morning News.

Lockhart, Tex., July 24.—No negroes will participate in the democratic primaries to be held here Saturday. They never have done so, and little fear is felt that they will begin at this time. Only a small per cent of the Mexican population in this county is naturalized, and they neither have a poll tax receipt nor can they vote. The names of the presidential electors will be placed on the ticket to be voted Saturday. County politics are at fever heat and all are running in a bunch.

SENSATIONAL SPEECH

depositors had been turned down. Yet Cone Johnson misrepresented the matter to the city council. I read an extract of a portion of a letter to the comptroller of currency.

"In view of our conference with you yesterday with reference to the proposed settlement and compromise in the matter of United States vs. J. D. Moody, S. H. Rowland and A. L. Clark, in which it was determined that whatever sum or sums was paid by the defendants must be paid to the receivership of the First National Bank of Tyler, Texas, and through that trust disbursed proportionately on all outstanding claims, and that no arrangement could be entered into or recognized by your department by which the money paid and to be paid could be applied to the claims of personal depositors to the exclusion of others."

Rankin is Flayed.

"There is another whose slanders I have tolerated for four years. He lives here and his name is the one blot on the fair name of the city, George C. Rankin. (Shouts and loud cheering.) He wears the cloak of an apostle, of a saviour in order to protect himself from the lash of outraged honor. (More wild applause.) And beneath that cloak is a heart so black, so audacious with hatred and malice that the eternal fires of hell will never cleanse it. The name of no

Sacramento, Cal., July 24.—Even after applying the other tests, alienists were undecided today whether Charles Carson, a convict in Folsom penitentiary, had been stricken dumb or is shamming.

He has not spoken a word for two years and ten months.

The common effect of ether is to loosen the tongue while the subject is going under, or coming out of its effects. Not a sound escaped Carson while he was being subjected to the test. Carson was sentenced to life imprisonment in 1904 for assault and robbery. Two years later he was given a sentence of death for his share in a murderous jail break, but has several times been reprieved. He is a South Carolinian.

KATE FRIEND, Editor

MRS. HALLIE GRIDER JOINER PROUD MOTHER OF A SON
The first born has come to bless the life of Mrs. Hallie Grider Joiner. This is a wee son who has just arrived in the Memphis home.

MISS SUHLER AT HOSPITAL
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

In June, Miss Miriam Suhlér with her mother, Mrs. A. Suhlér, left for a pleasure trip through California. It developed that an operation for appendicitis was necessary for Miss Suhlér, so on Thursday of the past week she was taken to one of the hospitals in Los Angeles. She stood the ordeal well and the report of Wednesday stated that she would be out within another week.

AT HOME IN WARBURTON PARK AFTER 6 O'CLOCK

It is quite a pleasing bit of information to know that the automobile and vehicle drivers, also those who take the street car outings, can be entertained with a musical concert at Warburton Park this evening. The women of the neighborhood will be at home to all their friends and will offer them cooling refreshments of every nature.

AUSTIN AVENUE MISSION HOLDING SOCIAL MEETINGS

For the summer season, the Austin Avenue Mission Society is holding some very pleasant parlor and porch sessions. The last was in the newly renovated home of Mrs. W. B. Andrews' out on Provident Heights and found as many as thirty women present. This speaks well for the life of the society in this season of so many absences. The meeting of Friday will be with Mrs. C. M. Pattillo on North Twelfth. A number of new members have been welcomed. The business of the society is conducted once a month. The mission's study feature which occupies the three other Fridays of each month is not stressed during the warm weather.

IDEA FOR CHURCH WOMEN; UTILIZE PARK FOR BOOTHS

One of the church societies up in Fort Worth has utilized quite a unique idea as a money-making venture for midsummer. The residence district of Fort Worth is beautifully parked along the sidewalks such as some of our Waco streets have adopted. The Presbyterian church erected booths along these squares, an ice cream, a candy stand, etc. This was for the purpose of catching the pennies of the passerby on their moonlight drives; also, for those who should promenade and patronize. The novelty of the idea, the outdoor recreation, and the opportunity to patronize popular women and a good cause, made the financial harvest well worth the venture. Why not have the novelty out on North Fifteenth?

A NEIGHBORHOOD CIRCLE HAS SMALL BRIDGE GAMES

Out in the Colonial Hill neighborhood there is playing in quite an informal way, a circle of bridge enthusiasts. These while away both mornings and afternoons as the fancy takes one or the other to call in the players. Three of these pleasant little affairs have been reported. In one, Mrs. Howell McCullough gathered the class to meet Mrs. Baker of Dallas and enjoy a morning in her always cheerful home.

Mrs. Nathan Patten, Jr., has also been hostess to the same neighborhood game.

On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Camille White Franklin formed a game in courtesy to her guest, Miss Mattie Franklin of Galveston. Her invited guests were: Madames Clarence Hubby, S. M. McAshan, Howell McCullough, Silas Newton, Sam Hanna, George Patten, George Hunter Smith, Nathan Patten, Erwin Clark, George McGhee and Robert Tolson.

Society Notes.

Dr. J. Ellen Gildersleeve, who accompanied the body of her mother to Missouri, is prolonging her visit with former friends there until the first of August.

Letters from Miss Margaret Gorman last left her nearing Lockport, New York. She writes that she is enjoying every moment of her trip, is seeing wonderful sights, and has most congenial traveling companions.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Early leave for Virginia with the first of August. Mrs. William Early remains chaperone to the home and will have with her for a time her sisters Misses Kathleen and Russell Gould from Austin.

The pleasing news comes that early autumn will bring Miss Kate Edmond from Alabama to remain indefinitely with her sisters, Mrs. H. C. Linney and Miss Isabel Edmond.

Miss Nettie Haber is with her aunt, Mrs. Philip Sanger of Dallas, touring the coast resorts about New York City. Before returning home there will be a sojourn at Sharon Springs, New York.

An out-of-town note finds Mrs. Maud Walker Marron with her interesting little daughter gone from Wichita Falls to spend the summer with her parents in Tennessee.

Mrs. Charles Moore will be one of the late summer absentees. She goes to Cleveland to visit her sister, Mrs. Josephine McLennan Badger, and will remain to get the benefit of the bracing autumn.

So many women are driving their own cars, and there are so many excursions by automobile these days, the women ought certainly to become advocates for good roads. They can not vote, but they can worry the men until these vote the right way.

So the police have taken to clearing the sidewalks of standing passengers. This will interrupt many a tete-a-tete which has been noticed many the detriment of the young women who have indulged. The sidewalks are for walking, not for loitering.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Davis, who, during the insurrection in Mexico, were with Waco relatives, have resumed their residence in Torreon.

When the season re-opens suppose some of the women who have the talent give one or two sacred afternoon concerts down at the Y. M. C. A. and out at the Home and the Settlement. We sometimes forget how little it takes of our own sacrifice to give happiness to other lives.

The women of the Evangelical board are now called upon to return thanks to the city commission for grading the yard of the children's playground at the new settlement house.

With North Fifth a paved boulevard, let the tocsin be, down with the front fences. There should not be the suspicion of the fence between the court house and the park entrance.

The news comes from California that never could one conceive so remote a section so much like home. It chances that surprise meetings among the homefolks also with other Texans are of daily occurrence.

The Paris customers are on the warpath, and justly so. They say their prestige is fast waning as designers and that the New York shops are taking the supremacy. Like with all else, the American is freeing herself from the yoke of fashion's tyranny as regards Paris being the dictator. And this talk of fashion reminds that these same costumers now declare a democratic president will lower duty and give the women cheaper gowns. Women, get busy, send Woodrow Wilson to the white house, and then go down to the costume shop and celebrate. But, before so doing, write Mr. Wilson and have him further declare himself on the duty for millinery.

Wonder how many women are reading up on their club study for the coming year?

With so many Waco women touring Europe this season it is to be hoped that none will come into the class of the sister who went over with more money than information. She searched the city for Shylock's shop and announced when she had gotten on the Grand Canal, that to her mind, Venice had spaced out a bit.

Remind the children of the Story Hours at the library Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Appell, who came for the funeral of J. H. Appell, are returning home to Palestine today.

Mrs. T. A. Hooks of North Twelfth, is spending a few days in Hubbard.

Miss Annie Dillworth of North Thirtieth, has for her guest, Miss Katherine Morrell of Milford.

Among recent departures is that of Miss Mittie Blount of San Augustine, who had been a guest in the Layton Puckett home on Washington street.

Dr. and Mrs. Fannin, who visited their daughter, Mrs. Roy Coleman on Herring avenue, are again at home in San Antonio.

After a vacation visit to her old home friends here, Miss Camille Kibler left for her home in El Paso on Wednesday.

Miss Patty White has returned home to Bryan. She visited Mrs. Lovelace on South Seventh.

Mrs. Burns of Giddings, the recent guest of Mrs. Max Roensch on North Fifth, has returned home.

After a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. G. Ivy on Herring avenue, Miss Christine Wilson of Taylor, is now visiting W. Dallas.

Mrs. B. Alexander of North Thirtieth, extended her visit from Martin to Hempstead on Wednesday.

Mrs. Dames Dave Weil and Emmett Meyer, who came from Houston on account of the illness and death of Mrs. Julia Dreyfus, are again at home in Houston.

Mrs. Max Landman of Twelfth and Washington, is in Hubbard since Sunday.

Mrs. J. Owen Carpenter is down from Clinton to spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. George W. Tilley on North Sixteenth.

Miss Ruby Tilley returned from Lorena on Wednesday. She was accompanied by Miss Mary Willis, who will make a short visit to the Tilley home.

An Important Office.

The office of a sheriff of McLennan county is an important office. A responsible man should, by all means, be entrusted with the duties that office imposes. Geo. W. Tilley has made a record of responsibility in performing those duties during his seven years' service to the people.

MAIL MATRIMONIAL PROMOTERS ARRESTED

MEMPHIS PAIR CHARGED WITH RUNNING "CUPID" CLEARING HOUSE SWINDLE.

By The Associated Press.

Memphis, Tenn., July 24.—By the arrest of Frank Gailo and his wife, Gladys Gailo, in this city late yesterday, it is alleged a fraudulent matrimonial bureau was brought to light. The woman is in charge of the United States authorities while Gailo is in custody of the sheriff. It is said Gailo will be turned over to the federal authorities without pressing the case against him, that of forgery, preferred by his wife, and through which the matter was brought to the notice of the federal officials.

The woman is known by the name of Gladys Gailo, Gladys Barnes and Myrtle Epps. She is said to have relatives living at Selmer, Tenn. By use of a photograph of a beautiful woman, the pair maintained a munificent correspondence with wife-seekers from California to Virginia and Canada to Texas. The modus operandi, it is charged, was to inaugurate correspondence, send on the decoy photograph to represent Gladys Barnes, "a poor but respectable working girl," and then under one pretext or another, have the kibble ones send funds to Gladys.

The arrest of the "fake" matrimonial bureau promoters was made through J. Deusterhoff, whose residence was not made public, who, it is said, sent Gladys $205 to use in going to his home where they would be married. Deusterhoff, not hearing from Memphis within a reasonable time, brought the matter to the attention of the police department and the arrests followed.

A search of the rooms of the couple revealed hundreds of letters sent by the lovelorn correspondents. Several dozen reproductions of the beautiful woman, represented as Gladys Barnes, made from a theatrical clipping by a Beale avenue photographer, were also found.

BRYANT ALLEN ASKS NOT FOR SYMPATHY

To the People:

I am a candidate for public weigher, precincts 1 and 4.

Owing to a misunderstanding of the Terrell election law my name will not appear on ballot on July 22.

Mr. J. C. Gage, one of my opponents, refused to allow the executive committee to place my name on the ballot. Mr. Sim Nix, another of my opponents, signed my application, asking that I be allowed to make the race, but after signing same he wrote the attorney general, saying that he did not believe it "legal or fair" that I be allowed to make the race. He says (Mr. Nix) in answer to my letter of July 21, that he did not write the letter (although he signed it) but that one of his friends wrote it. What do you think of that? Mr. Hooper, also an opponent, signed my application but after doing so he stated to J. C. Gage (so says Mr. Gage) that he was sorry he had done so.

Mr. Hooper, Mr. Nix and Mr. Gage are telling the voters that if my name is written on the ballot it will not be legal and the vote will not be counted. This they know to be untrue.

To substantiate this I quote a letter from the attorney general's department which is as follows:

Austin, July 16, 1912.
Mr. Bryant Allen,
Waco, Texas.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your favor of the 14th instant, I beg to state that the election officers are authorized to pass upon such questions as are submitted by you and ordinarily their action is final. If the election officers can readily determine from the name written on the ballot who it was the voter intended to vote for, the ballot should be counted for that person. Personally, I am of the opinion that the vote cast for Bryant Allen, B. Allen or probably for Allen without any initials would be sufficient identification to count the vote for Bryant Allen if there were no other Allen running for the office except Bryant Allen. Yours very truly,

C. E. MEAD,
Assistant Attorney General.

I ask you to judge this case on its merits and vote as your conscience dictates.

Respectfully,
BRYANT ALLEN.

CAT KILLS SNAKE FOR ITS CELLAR HOME

By The Associated Press.

Tulsa, Okla., July 24.—"Maria," the maltese cat of Dr. D. U. Wadsworth, city superintendent of health, became frightened at a gust of wind last spring and ran into the storm cellar. She liked it so well she took up permanent residence therein. Later when her family of eleven kittens arrived, she became offended at a large bull snake, also residing in the cave, and killed it with a "toe hold" and put her family in the snake's den. Today Dr. Wadsworth found the kittens with the snake's carcass beside the nest.

CLEMENCEAU ATTACKS POINCARRE'S BILL

SAYS ELECTORAL MEASURE WAS CARRIED IN CHAMBER BY IMPROPER METHODS.

By The Associated Press.

Paris, July 24.—George Clemenceau, formerly premier, today opened the senatorial opposition to the electoral bill adopted by the chamber of deputies December 29. His first move against the government takes the form of an open letter addressed to Premier Poincarre, attacking his attitude in carrying the bill through the lower house of parliament.

M. Clemenceau, leading opponent of the proportional representation plan, argues that Premier Poincarre carried the bill in the chamber of deputies not by the normal republican majority, but with the help of the votes of the reactionaries and revolutionaries, who will desert him at the first opportunity. He contends the majority rule is the foundation of the French republic and any abandonment of it will be a "disastrous mistake." The complicated system of proportional representation, according to M. Clemenceau, never will be understood by and never will please the voters and at the very least, will cause Frenchmen to lose interest in the future elections which, as hitherto conducted, have been a high guarantee of civil peace.

AMATEUR FLYER FALLS; IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

MACHINE DROPS HUNDRED FEET, BURYING ITS NOSE IN THE GROUND.

By The Associated Press.

Hempstead, N. Y., July 24.—Edson P. Gallaudet, a wealthy amateur aviator, while flying at Hempstead Plains today, fell with his machine from a height of 100 feet. He was seriously hurt.

Mr. Gallaudet, who is well known in banking and social circles, had been successfully flying about the field and rose to make another flight. When about a hundred feet in the air he made an acute right turn and his monoplane, evidently lacking sufficient momentum, dropped, burying its nose in the ground. Mr. Gallaudet was driven full speed to a hospital. It was found he had received a severe scalp wound, a deep cut on the chin and left eye, and his right leg was so badly cut that an artery was severed.

GRACE IS EAGER TO TESTIFY AGAINST WIFE

Much Disappointed Because His Condition Now Prevents His Doing So.

By The Associated Press.

Newman, Ga., July 24.—Eugene H. Grace, whose wife will be placed on trial in Atlanta Monday, charged with shooting him, today voiced a desire to go there and testify and expressed his keen disappointment at being unable to do so. He still is bedridden from the wound in his side, which he insists was caused by his wife while he slept.

Grace, who for four months has remained on his back at his mother's home here, reiterated the statement that his wife shot him and that he believed she did so to get $27,000 life insurance which has since been cancelled.

Grace is practically paralyzed from his waist down.

"BOILER PLATE" TRUST UP ON THE CARPET

By The Associated Press.

Washington, July 24.—Negotiations between the department of justice, the American Press Association and the Western Newspaper Union for an agreement to bring those corporations into harmony with the Sherman law are approaching conclusion.

Representatives of both companies which furnish "boiler plate" and "ready" print paper to thousands of country newspapers had conferences today with James A. Fowler, assistant to the attorney general.

A peculiar feature of the case is that the department of justice is endeavoring to preserve competition between the companies and prevent one from crushing the other.

SENATOR H. B. TERRELL.

Mr. Terrell served the people of McLennan county for four terms in the lower house. He is now serving his first term in the senate. He is recognized as an energetic, hard-working member, one who guards the interests of his constituents well.

He is a splendid parliamentarian, and knows the rules of the house and senate as few men do. In the senate he took a leading part in all important legislation, and as a compliment to him his colleagues elected him president pro tem of the senate at the close of his first term, an honor seldom or never conferred on a new member before.

Mr. Terrell is Waco's friend. He is in the prime of life, and therefore capable of getting results for his constituents. He is asking for a second term. Is he not entitled to it?

PERSECUTE MINISTER'S WIVES.

Special to The Morning News.

London, July 24.—A well-informed journalist states that a very disagreeable feature of the suffragist agitation is to be seen in the fact that the wives of ministers are being persecuted by anonymous letter writers' froth. The husbands are practically protected from the worst contents of their letter bag by the interposition of the private secretary, but the wives, unhappily, have not invariably this defense, and they consequently suffer greatly from this petty and new growingly-persistent persecution.

The News has been fortunate in securing Fuller, Henriquez & Putnam of Chicago and New York as its foreign advertising representatives.

This firm is composed of advertising men who rank among the foremost in the country, who have the confidence of the largest and most general advertisers in the United States. This connection means that the interests of the News will be cared for and vigorously advanced among the western and eastern advertisers. The News takes pleasure in announcing this strong agency of New York and Chicago as its representatives in the foreign field.

GIVE THE GOVERNOR WELCOME.

The governor of Texas is to be a guest of the city this evening, at which time he will make an address in regard to his candidacy for re-election.

Waco has been the home of two governors in times gone by, and Waco can appreciate the high position to which the men of this state are from time to time called. It is well for the governor of the state to visit all parts of the commonwealth during his administration, that he may become acquainted with the people, their desires, their needs and their conditions. On this occasion of the visit of the governor, he should receive a cordial welcome from the people of this city, irrespective of political affiliation. He is entitled to considerate hearing, and whether a man agrees with him or not, he should attend and know what he has to say as governor, and as a candidate for re-election.

The governor is the fifth of the leading candidates in the present contest to visit Waco. Randall, Wolters and Sheppard have been here to urge their claims for the United States senate. Ramsey has been in the city to present his views on state affairs, and now comes the governor of the state, Hon. O. B. Colquitt, who offers for re-election as governor. The others have been heard, and it is but right and proper that to the governor Waco should give a greeting, a proper hearing and a careful consideration.

Mr. Colquitt is well informed on the affairs of the state. He has been a state senator, a railroad commissioner and governor, and in the course of his remarks he will speak of things that will be of interest.

But while he is here as a guest of the city, he should be treated with cordiality and consideration.

NEW MONEY IN WACO.

The acquisition by the Brazos Valley Telegraph & Telephone company of the toll lines and exchanges belonging to the South Texas company, brings to Waco the ownership and control of additional telephone properties that make more important this city as the headquarters of the Independent system in the state. The telephone is a utility that modern business methods must have. The more telephones there are, the more business and social intercourse between the people of the community and the state, and a healthy competition between rival business concerns, helps to better the conditions under which the business is conducted. This is true of commercial organizations as well as of public service corporations. The Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone company is the largest system in the state, and it serves thousands of people. The Brazos Valley company is its chief competitor and Waco is the home of the Brazos Valley. As it extends its lines over different sections of Texas, it increases its own importance, and directs more attention to Waco, and therefore Waco is to be congratulated upon the growth of a Waco enterprise.

The building up of this independent company has been the work of years for J. B. Earle. He has labored against strong odds from year to year in his efforts to organize local companies, to bring them together in one big corporation that could handle the business, and now, finally, he is at the head and front of the concern, its president and its chief inspiration. In his work of building he has brought new capital into Waco and into Texas, and he is entitled to the congratulations of those who live about him. As a native of Waco he has grown with the town, and there are none who would take from him the slightest mead of praise.

REAL CAMPAIGN ISSUES.

Occasionally we hear some one say something about legislation to discourage the speculative holding of land. Once in a while a sober-minded voter gets in a word edgewise about the necessity for an equitable system of rendering property for taxation. And if we listen attentively we may hear a suggestion or two with respect to court procedure reform or the simplification of governmental methods. But the bulk of the electorate is wasting time with questions of less moment and perspiring over issues raised for the sole purpose of creating divisions to the possible advantage of designing office-seekers.

We have a great deal of the awakening of the people to their rights. The statute books have been encumbered with wonderfully constructed laws providing fantastic means for them to use in expressing their untrammelled will. But the same old politicians, with the assistance of a few understudies of never vintage, are still able to divert the attention of the masses from subjects that have a real bearing on the public welfare.

Take the present campaign, for instance. Is there any one on the stump intelligently discussing the question of making proper provisions for the insane or talking of the needs of the eleemosynary institutions as they should be talked about? Indeed, no. One side is busily engaged in trying to make the most of an issue it says is not an issue, while going the limit in the employment of tactics that, to say the least of them, do not indicate much respect for the intelligence of the voters they are expected to influence. The other side, as a result, is kept busy defending itself against attacks that are not always fairly directed and has no time to devote to the discussion of matters that should receive earnest attention and become the subject of exhaustive analysis.

Because of the raising of irrelevant issues, the proposition to levy a separate tax for the maintenance of the higher educational institutions, instead of leaving their support to be attended to by capricious legislators, has not been laid before the people. Nor has there been anything said about creating a general board to manage the affairs of the eleemosynary institutions, or of one to manage the affairs of the normal schools, instead of leaving those affairs to be looked after by local boards which, as a rule, take but a local view of their duties.

Yet these things are of far greater importance than the petty wrongs of down-and-out officeholders that are being exploited to the exclusion of subjects of moment to all the people. They are real issues calling for settlement. But the electorate is allowing itself to be drawn away from them under the delusion that stump oratory is an ebullition of patriotism.

The business of the average campaign orator is to eschew questions of statesmanship and bear down on matters that require nothing but the gift of gab to bring them to the front. And the woods are full of such orators this year, and they are doing their best to get the mind of the public off of the things that should be uppermost therein. So long as these orators are encouraged, so long will it be difficult for the state to get its affairs attended to in a business-like manner.

The automobile has been a strong factor in the campaign in this state which is now nearing to a close, and while it is proving a facility to those who want to meet the people, it may prove a "man killer" in the end. Because of the possibilities of the machine in covering space, it encourages the friends of the candidates to urge them just another and another speech, until some of those now on the stump are making five and six towns a day. Human endurance cannot stand up under such a strain, and either the automobile will have to be used less or the candidates will thin out from time to time.

Now that Waco is to be connected with Beaumont by long distance telephone lines that are owned by people who have their homes in Waco and their capital invested in a property that has headquarters in Waco, let it be an encouragement to the railroad builders to construct that air line to the Queen City of the Neches. With a line of road from Beaumont to Waco and trains running both ways, it will mean much to each of the cities.

Lower rates are given by the railroads to the Farmers' Congress at College Station than to any other event in the state. The congress discusses every subject of interest to the producing people of the state. Some of the men of deepest study on agriculture and kindred subjects are on the program, and it behooves every farmer to attend. Any farmer is eligible to join.

THE BULL MOOSE.

(Port Worth Record)

I feel like a bull moose, jubilation exclaimed Col. Roosevelt when he alighted in Chicago just in time to get in the way of the steam roller. The pert paragraphers and the cartoonists had found what they had been looking for—a name and emblem for the new party: "Bull Moose" and "Bull Moose Party" he and it have been since, and by such titles they will be known to the end of the chapter.

Without knowing very much about the bull moose, or just what manner of animal he is, we feel, somehow, that he is an appropriate emblem for the new party. When we think of a bull moose we get a mental picture of a huge, hulking animal, crashing through the underbrush, heedless of its course, snapping off saplings and limbs of giant trees, and leaving a trail of destruction in its wake. We get the impression that he is dangerous, but not brave; destructive, but with little intelligence—an animal that in its fury would rush over a precipice or trample on its own young. That's the kind of animal we have pictured the bull moose as being. Now appears the Rev. Dr. William Joseph Long, the noted writer and lecturer on animal life and first member of the nature fakir's section of the Annapolis Club, and tells us that our impressions are correct, and that moreover the bull moose is an ardent coward. Says Dr. Long:

Though the bull moose is thus instinctively retiring, he has another side to his nature. At times he rambles violently through the woods, exalting his horns, grunting, squealing, stamping the earth with his hoofs, and threshing the unoffending bushes with his antlers. Meeting him now you would think him a champion, but he is at heart an ardent coward and brags, without a spark of real—that is of moral—courage. If he ever attacks it is in a fit of blind fury, like a cornered cat. He will roar defiance at all rivals and at the universe itself; but snap a twig sharply, or bark like a small dog, and all the rampant egotism oozes out of him.

The close parallel between your bull moose and your true politician may be carried further. Thus, the addlepated creature often lets himself be hunted by cunning destroyers that he might easily escape.

Hail the Bull Moose! fit emblem of the furious Colonel and his furious party.

COLONEL APPROVES BULL MOOSE FOR PARTY NAME

Says It Is "Pretty Vigorous Animal; Neighbors to Use the Name."

By The Associated Press.
Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 24.—The stamp of approval has been placed on the term "bull moose" as applied to the new party. Today Colonel Roosevelt's Oyster Bay neighbors made up their minds to employ the name. There had been some doubt as to whether the former president approved it until yesterday when in a speech at New York he said:

"I see that the bull moose is a pretty animal."

Who Will Be Your Choice?
If you were making the choice for a man to fill an important position in your business, whom would you choose? Most surely you would choose a man who had always been found in partnership with duty and clean principles, a man of experience on the job, a conscientious man who always fearlessly served best your best interests, a courteous and just man. When you vote for a man for office you are helping to fill a position of trust to the whole people. Sheriff Geo. W. Tilley cordially solicits your vote for re-election next Saturday, feeling that he is capable of filling and is filling creditably every duty of the sheriff's office. He opens his record as an officer, as a sheriff, to your scrutiny, asks your investigation, and then, if you find him worthy of your support, to give it to him in your vote next Saturday, in the regular democratic primaries. He will sincerely appreciate your vote.

ELECTION LAW NOW BRIEFED FOR VOTERS

KNOTTY PROBLEMS ANSWERED BY ATTORNEY GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT.

Owing to the unusually large number of election problems now being referred to the attorney general's department for solution, Assistant Attorney General C. E. Mead has drawn up a compendium of the principal points of the Terrell election law and is mailing a copy out to the various county chairmen and to such others as write the department for light on the subject. Here is the summary:

"No person is entitled to vote in any election, primary or general, unless he has resided in Texas twelve months, and in the county in which he offers to vote at least six months next before said election.

"The fact that a person will have resided in the county six months at the time of the general election in November, will not authorize him to vote in the primary in July unless he will have resided in the county six months at the date of the primary.

"You are not entitled to vote at a primary election if you are not 21 years old at the time you offer to vote notwithstanding you may become 21 years old on or before the date of holding the general election.

"A young man becoming of age after the last day of January of the year preceding an election at which he offers to vote may vote at such election, provided he has obtained certificate of exemption from the tax collector. This applies to all persons whether residing in cities of 10,000 inhabitants or not.

"Certificates of exemption under this section or under Section 19, are only required to be obtained from the county tax collector. It is not necessary to obtain certificates of exemption from city tax collector in cities of 10,000 or more.

"A person who has not resided in the county for six months prior to the election, but has resided in the district of which the county is a part for six months prior to the election, would not be entitled to vote for either county, district or state officers in said county.

"A person who came to Texas after the first day of January, 1911, is entitled to vote in any election without having paid a poll tax if he has lived in the state twelve months and is otherwise qualified. Neither is he required to procure certificate of exemption.

"The residence of a single man is where he usually sleeps at night; that of a married man is where his wife resides, or if he be permanently separated from his wife, his residence is where he sleeps at night.

"A person does not lose his residence in a locality by being temporarily absent with his family for the purpose of sending his children to school or any similar purpose, and will be entitled to vote at the place of his permanent residence.

"If you were subject to a poll tax for the year 1911, and failed to pay it before Feb. 1, 1912, you can not vote in any election. This applies to both state and city poll taxes.

"Your poll tax must be paid in the city in which you reside on the first day of January of the year for which it is levied. Paying in wrong county will not allow you to vote.

"You cannot vote in a primary election unless you are 21 years old, have resided in the state for twelve months and in the county in which you offer to vote for six months, and paid your poll tax, state, county and city or town, prior to Feb. 1, or received a certificate of exemption, if you are exempt, and a certificate is required.

"Each male person between the ages of 21 and 60, who resided in this state on the first day of January, preceding the levy of a poll tax, is subject to same except the following persons, who are exempt, viz.: (a) Indians not taxed. (b) Insane persons. (c) Blind persons. (d) Deaf and dumb persons. (e) Persons who have lost a hand. (f) Persons who have lost a foot. (g) Persons who are permanently disabled.

"A person is not exempt from the payment of a poll tax under exceptional conditions (e) and (f) unless the hand or foot is entirely severed from the body. A disability of hand or arm or foot or leg, though it may be permanent, does not exempt.

"To be exempt under the exception (g), there must be a permanent disability to perform any manual labor. It is not sufficient that there be a disability of one limb or two limbs, but the physical condition must be such that the person is not capable of performing manual labor at all. This exemption should be passed upon by the county officers upon the facts of each case.

"A certificate of exemption for the persons mentioned in this section is not required unless you are a resident of a city of 10,000 inhabitants.

"If an alien declares his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States six months prior to an election in which he desires to vote, he is entitled to vote if otherwise qualified.

"If, after payment of your polltax, you move from one county to another, and in the county to which you remove, you reside in a city of 10,000 inhabitants, you will not be allowed to vote in the precinct of your new residence unless you present your certificate of exemption, or affidavit of its loss, to the tax collector of the county of your new residence, at least four days before an election in which you offer to vote, and have him add your name to the certified list of the precinct of your own residence.

"If you need any assistance in the preparation of your ballot, it must be given by the election judges, and a heavy fine and imprisonment is imposed upon any judge or clerk of an election who by word, writing, sign or token indicates how he desires you to vote.

"Two supervisors of primary elections for each voting precinct may

By The Associated Press.

Houston, July 24.—With the score tied, Reynolds led off in Houston's half of the ninth with a two-bagger, advanced to third on Foster's out, and scored on a perfect squeeze by Knaupp. Foster pitched his usual brilliant game, and though both Waco runs were earned, both were actually scored on dumb plays. Crichtlow and McLaurin did star work in the field. The score:

Galveston, July 24.—Sent in as a pinch hitter in the sixth inning, with the bases full, two out, and the score standing 3 to 2 against his team, Hopkins, Maloney's newest outfielder, slammed out a two-bagger, which cleaned the sacks and won the game for Galveston over the Senators this afternoon. A protest of the game was filed with Umpire Newhouse, to be forwarded to President Allen, on the ground that Hopkins has participated in more than the five games allowed without his contract being registered in the secretary's office. All of Gal-veston's run came in the sixth, when a the opportunity furnished by Larsen and won today's game in the fourth inning with two singles, a double, two stolen bases and a base on balls, to which was added a sacrifice fly, in scor-

had a chance to win in the seventh.

With one score over and three men on bases and two out, Casey smashed a

San Antonio, July 24.—After being hopelessly beaten, Fort Worth turned today's game into a farce, the Bronchos finally winning, 19 to 4. It was not from being puffed with decisions, for every one seemed satisfied there.

It was merely a feeling of reckless abandon. Wallace, traded to the Pan-played short for Fort Worth, while

Lemon was at third for San Antonio.

AN APPEAL BY COLQUITT CITIZENS' CLUB OF WACO

We, the undersigned citizens and voters of Waco, McLennan county, Texas, believe in the time-honored democratic doctrine of giving a second term to a governor who has kept his pledges and rendered faithful services to his state. We believe a change at this time can be of no benefit to the state, and a failure to re-elect Governor Colquitt an undeserved rebuke to one who has served the people faithfully and made few mistakes. We therefore join in submitting the claims of Governor Colquitt for re-election and urge upon all democrats to support him in the coming election.

SEEKS TO REDUCE AVIATION DEATHS

HEAD OF AERIAL DEPARTEMENT OF FRENCH ARMY TELLS OF PROGRESS.

Safety Appliances Needed to Make Air Navigation Less Dangerous.

Special to The Morning News.

Paris, July 24.—An interesting sketch was given to the chamber of deputies by Colonel Hirschauer, chief of the aviation department of the army, describing the efforts being made by the government to render this branch of the service more efficient and less dangerous. M. Borel had given some striking statistics as to the frequency of accidents, stating that out of 517 pilots licensed in 1910, 33 had been killed, or 6.38 per cent, and out of 1417 licensed in 1911, 104 had been killed, equal to 7.34 per cent. If the number of pilots regularly flying were taken as 500 the mortality rose to nearly 20 per cent.

It was in answer to these figures mostly that Colonel Hirschauer made his declaration. He said that during the second six months of 1911 there had been nine fatal accidents among 120 pilots and pupils, who had covered 180,000 miles. During the first six months of 1912 there was the same mortality for 250 pilots, who had flown more than twice the distance. Consequently, the number of fatal accidents must be considered to have decreased by half. Even this, however, was much too heavy, and nowadays every machine in course of construction was examined by a technical expert commission, which verified every component part before it was used and after the machine was delivered.

Machines Are Tested.

Many other details were given of the minute care taken to insure the stability and perfection of the machine, and besides a small ground and factory for testing speed and dynamic force at Vincennes a very large laboratory was to be established, enabling trials to be made over distances from 1200 to 200 yards. No machine is now taken out without having first been thoroughly overhauled by its pilot officer and his mechanic, and every week the head of the district holds a general inspection of all the machines. Any signs of wear are noted and repairs are immediately carried out. It is partially true that slightly worn machines and motors are given to pupils, but that is because for long flights the most perfect motors are required, and for instruction purposes in an aerodrome less powerful and reliable ones may serve. The danger of suddenly coming to earth is much less serious there than at haphazard in any sort of country.

The pilots are sometimes wrongly accused of nervousness and lack of experience, but as a matter of fact, any candidate who during instruction is found to be wanting in coolness is sent back to his regiment. This is not considered as implying any blame, but a mere physical disability for that particular work. The medical examination for heart, lungs and sight is very strict and as for experience, the maneuvers and daily exercises speak for themselves.

Safer Safety Devices.

Colonel Hirschauer proceeded to describe what was being done to adapt automatic stabilizers, and a contrivance which is now fitted on all machines showing when the speed exceeds or falls below the normal or safe limit. The war ministry has just arranged with the league for the safety of aviators to offer a prize of $50,000 for an invention to obviate present dangers, which would only be awarded after thorough tests on ordinary full-sized machines. The help of the academy of medicine had also been called in to determine the maximum speed at which living creature can be thrown to earth without injury, and when its opinion had been given, a series of experiments would be made to avoid the too frequently fatal shocks from falls.

Amid much applause Colonel Hirschauer stated that he had just registered the 1800th application for admission to the flying corps, and it was often with tears in their eyes that young officers entreated to be employed in this branch. He remarked on the value of youth, and on the significant fact that among the great army of airmen the very young ones never had accidents. He was just about to accept eight new pupils, none of whom was yet 20 years old.

The "Aero" predicts the necessity in the very near future of constructing "aerial destroyers," or large and powerful monoplane driven by motors of 150-horsepower, up to 200-horsepower, and capable of doing from 90 to 100 miles an hour. These will be able at any time to overtake an ordinary machine and, sailing over it, destroy it and its pilots by bombs.

NOTICE.

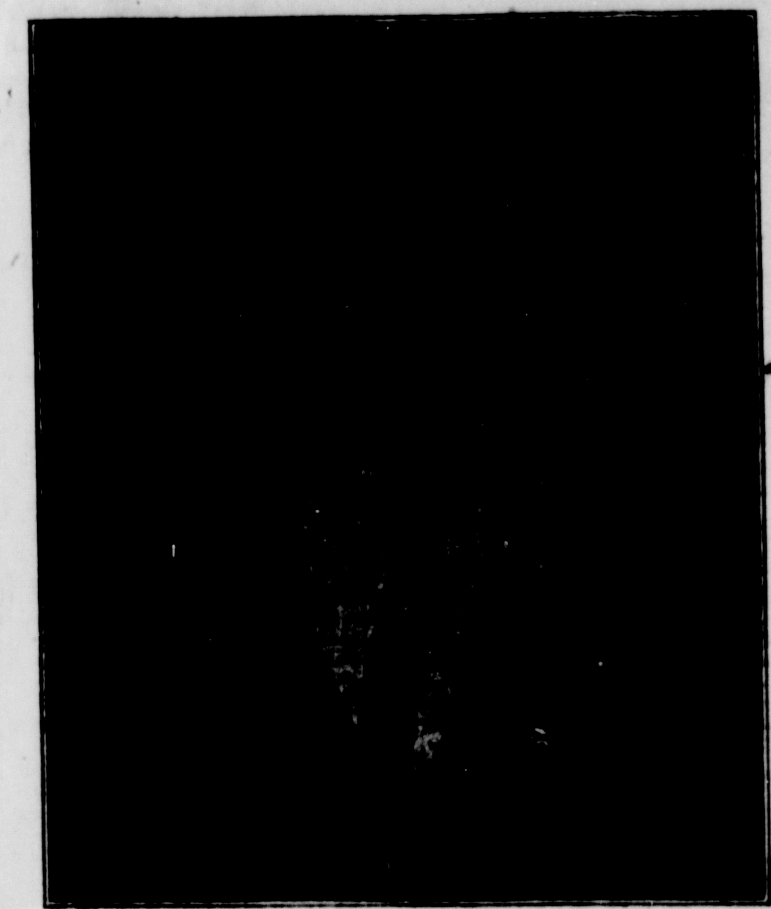

Scaled bids are requested for the boring of the hot well from the 1800-foot level to a depth of 2400 feet, or until hot water is struck, and for the casing of the well from the 1100-foot level. These bids will be opened August 1st, and the committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Battleship Nevada to Be Greatest Fighting Monster of World

Special to The Morning News.

Washington, July 24.—The battleship Nevada, now building for the United States, is the limit, the last thing in naval architecture, power and practicability in the world.

Admiral Bowles, formerly chief constructor of the navy department, who is building the Nevada, says that she will be a greater ship than the Argentine monster which now holds the record for size, but not in power of battery.

The Argentine ships have 98 foot beam and the canal locks are 110 feet, according to Admiral Bowles, they will have only a leeway of six feet on each side to get through. It is different with the Nevada. She is 92 feet in beam and that will give her 9 feet on each side to make the passage through the locks. He regards that as very important.

With Her Father.

Special to The Morning News.

Chicago, July 24.—Feeling that her father had shown partiality for her brother, Frederick, with whom she had quarreled, Miss Clara Nenierowski, 1708 West Fourteenth street, is believed to have attempted to commit suicide by taking carbolic acid.

The quarrel took place about 1 o'clock in the morning, and, according to a report to the police station, her father threatened to "slap her in the mouth."

Miss Nenierowski ran to her room and is reported to have swallowed carbolic acid. She was taken to the county hospital, where her condition was reported to be serious.

J. C. GAGE For Public Weigher

To the Voters and Precincts Nos. 1 and 4:

Due to the fact that the campaign is almost closed and it will be impossible for me to see all of you in person before you go to the polls on Saturday, I take this means of presenting my claims for the office of public weigher to those of you whom I have not been able to meet personally.

When I entered the race for public weigher of precincts of Nos. 1 and 4 I did so under the impression that it was a man's race and have endeavored to conduct my campaign for that office like a man, believing that every man had an equal showing there. I took it for granted that all the other candidates for that position, like myself, really wanted the office, and that it was incumbent upon me to do all I could in an honorable way to land the office for myself instead of handing it to any one of my opponents on a silver platter.

My campaign for the office has been clean and clear cut, and I have always felt that it was my own merits and not the demerits of my opponents that should entitle me to the votes of the people.

I have no public record to which to point my supporters, for I have never been a seeker for office. I am a plain, practical farmer, one who has made his living by his own hands, but I have conducted my own affairs in a businesslike way, and this, added to the character which I believe during my many years' residence in this section has been fairly well established in the minds of the people, enables me to believe that I can discharge the public office of weigher with satisfaction not only to the farmers who will be my patrons, but to the business interests of the city, which are vitally concerned in this office, as well.

There is no promise which I have made during the campaign which I can not, if elected, fulfill, for I have promised nothing more than the devotion of my best energies to that office at all seasons. Knowing the farmers of this county as I do, I believe I will be able to eliminate such grievances as have arisen in the past, if any there be, and being able to do this, I feel sure that my administration as public weigher would be worth a great deal to the business interests of Waco, which are concerned in seeing that the largest number of farmers bring their cotton to Waco and do their shopping here.

Asking that you give my candidacy your most thoughtful consideration, believing that if you do so you will cast your vote for me, and pledging, if elected, an honest, efficient and diligent administration of the affairs of that office, I am, respectfully,

J. C. GAGE.

And that the provisions of this paragraph be embodied in an indenture, which shall be executed, acknowledged and delivered by the proper officers of said Southern Traction Company and the City of Waco respectively.

MRS. HETTY GREEN JOINS THE CHURCH

Famous Rich Woman, at Age of Seventy-Eight, Baptized an Episcopalian.

Special to The Morning News.
New York, July 24.—Mrs. Hetty Green, who is in her 78th year, was baptized last Saturday afternoon in the Episcopal faith in order to prepare for confirmation as a member of the church.

The ceremony was performed in Jersey City by Rev. Augustine Elmendorf, rector of Holy Cross Episcopal church, Arlington and Claremont avenues, in the presence of Sol. Edward Towland Robinson Green, on whose shoulders have fallen much of his mother's great business responsibilities.

Father Elmendorf, as his parishioners call him, is distinctly related to Mrs. Green and for five or six years he has been endeavoring to induce her to think less of things earthly, and keep his secret to himself and labored diligently in the role of missionary by writing letters or carrying the message to her office in person.

Father Elmendorf went to the Trinity building, 111 Broadway, where Mrs. Green has her office, on Saturday. Although the great majority of workers in the financial district had taken advantage of the holiday, Mrs. Green was still busy, but as soon as she had straightened out everything she said she was ready to go with the minister. Colonel Green had his car in readiness and the trio crossed the river to Jersey City on their spiritual mission.

Several persons noticed Mrs. Green as she alighted from the car and entered the rectory, but nobody recognized her. Even the sexton of the church was kept in ignorance. The baptismal ceremony was conducted in the church. Owing to the advanced age of Mrs. Green sponsors were not required, according to the church law, and Colonel Green merely acted as a witness. The Greens returned to New York after the ceremony.

Mrs. Green will now prepare herself for confirmation, a ceremony that will be conducted by Bishop Edwin S. Lines of the Newark diocese.

According to Rev. Robert F. Lau, who is acting as rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church of Hoboken during the absence of Archbishop William R. Jenney, a candidate for membership in the Episcopal church is first baptized unless he can show that he already has been baptized. In the case of younger folks it is then necessary for them to be able to recite from memory the ten commandments and the Lord's prayer, and to have an understanding of the rest of the catechism. In the case of older persons, however, he says, there must be a broader education in the principles of the church.

After the candidate has gone through preparation for confirmation it remains with the rector of the church to decide whether he or she is fully prepared to report the name to the bishop.

Bishop Lines, who is at Green Pond, Newfoundland, N. J., said over the phone that he had not heard of the baptizing of Mrs. Green.

Father Elmendorf has been stopping at the home of his sister, Mrs. H. H. Palmer, 433 Franklin avenue, Ridgewood. He wasn't at home, having gone to Monroe, N. Y.

"Please do not try to reach my brother," said Mrs. Palmer, "and do not take the trouble to ask him if he baptized Mrs. Hetty Green, for he wouldn't tell you whether he had or not. I won't tell you, either."

"It was a very sensible thing for her to do, wasn't it?" a reporter suggested to Mrs. Palmer over the telephone.

"Yes," replied Mrs. Palmer, "but be good and don't say anything about it." Mrs. Green and her son declined to see a reporter at their office in the Trinity building. A message was sent in to Mrs. Green and a confidential clerk came out with this reply:

"Mrs. Green wants me to tell you that she was baptized in New Bedford, Mass., 75 years ago. That is all she will say."
Mrs. Green was born on Nov. 21, 1834, and was the only daughter of Edward Mott Robinson, who laid the foundation for his fortune in the whaling business. She came from New Bedford to New York in the winters during her girlhood and was seen much in society just before the civil war. She was chaperoned in New York by Moses B. Grinnell, to whom she was related on her mother's side. She married E. H. Green, who made a fortune in the China trade.

On her last birthday Mrs. Green said that she belonged to a sect—the Quakers—which preached peace and good will to the people. She said that her success in life was due to the fact that she lived simply, kept regular hours and never ate anything that wasn't wholesome. She also confessed that she gave more away to charity than people knew about, and that her favorite way of spending a birthday was to keep busy and make presents to folks whom she liked the best.

COTTON PRICES MAKE NEW HIGH RECORDS

MARKET IS DECIDEDLY MORE ACTIVE ON MORE OR LESS GENERAL BUYING.

By The Associated Press.

New York, July 24.—Today's cotton market was decidedly more active and prices made new high records for the season on more or less general buying, attributed to expectations of bullish crop condition reports during the next few days. The close was firm and 21 to 26 points higher. The opening was steady at an advance of 2 to 6 points in response to steady Liverpool cables. Trading was not particularly active at first, but prices continued to advance and buying became more general as the market worked higher. Rumors that preliminary returns to the National Grainers' association indicated that the condition of the crop had deteriorated between 3 and 4 per cent for the month were accompanied by buying orders from Memphis and New Orleans, and there was also heavy buying by a prominent Wall street house which is to issue a private condition report at noon tomorrow. This buying and rumors of bullish private condition figures seemed to strengthen expectations of a bullish government report a week from tomorrow. It was rumored some of the old bulls who had sold out their long cotton and had been waiting for a reaction on which to rebuy were coming back into the market on the advance. Realizing was heavy enough to check the upward movement when prices had worked up to about the high records of last week, but only slight reactions occurred from the best and another spurt of buying orders sent October and December contracts up to 12.65c late in the afternoon, or about 25 points net higher. July sold 31 points above the closing prices of yesterday on covering by scattering shorts. The close was 5 to 6 points off from the best under realizing. Liverpool credited the advance there to a continued good spot demand and trade buying. And it was reported large southern trade interests were buyers of local contracts during the day. Weather conditions were said to be favorable in the eastern belt.

Receipts 1399 bales, against 1351 last week and 912 last year. Today's receipts at Galveston 252, against 274 last year; at New Orleans 601, against 636 last year, and at Houston 128, against 499 last year.

WHEAT DROPS AS RUST SCARE DIES

COOLER AND CLEARER WEATHER IN NORTHWEST HELPS DISSIPATE ALARM.

By The Associated Press.

Chicago, July 24.—Flattening out of the black rust scare led to a drop today in wheat. The market closed easy at a net decline of 1@1 1/2c. Corn finished a shade off to 1/2c up and oats 1/4@1/2c down to 1c advance. The outcome for provisions was 2 1/2@17 1/2c up.

Cooler and clearer weather in the northwest helped dissipate alarm in regard to the spread of rust before wheat became ready to cut. Moreover, experts sent word that the prospect of injury seemed remote. Instead of impairment, experts found yields of 20 to 25 bushels an acre in sight, with the harvest only a week to ten days off. Disheartening cables found a stumbling block all day for the bulls. The response to the advance yesterday on this side showed a lack of belief abroad as to genuine danger of a shortage in the spring crop. Moreover, export trade had come to a standstill, no bids arriving that could be worked even on today's break. A rally due to less favorable reports from the Canadian northwest did not prove lasting.

Hot, dry weather in Kansas and Oklahoma incited active buying of corn during the greater part of the session. Around the opening and the close, however, the market was affected by the bearish sentiment concerning wheat.

In the oats crowd the principal feature was the support of July deliveries. Scarcity made itself evident and caused the market to show independence of other grain.

Despite the fact that provisions remained slow throughout, the lighter run of hogs went afforded the basis for an upturn. Pork led, advancing 10@17 1/2c net.

TRUST COMPANY FORGING AHEAD

OFFICERS OF CONTINENTAL OR-GANIZATION ASSURE SAFE, LIBERAL POLICY.

BIG BENEFIT FOR TEXAS

Operating Under Broad Texas Charter, Begins Business Sep-ber 1.

The Continental Trust Company of Waco is making great progress in the organization and development, as well as in the distribution of its capital stock. Some of the leading financial business and professional men of Waco and throughout the state of Texas are becoming interested in the company as stockholders, officers and directors. The present officers and directors include:

Management and Experience.
The Continental Trust Company will avail itself of the experience of the older companies doing business in the United States and will adopt and develop the most profitable functions peculiar to trust companies, and its policies will combine only the best features. The funds of this company will be invested in high class interest-bearing securities and such assets used as a protection to the investors. Ex-Secretary Shaw, of the United States Treasury, has the following to say regarding trust companies:

"There is no question but that with the right people back of the enterprise it can make large dividends for the stockholders."

Texas enriched eastern and foreign companies for many years, and is now confronted with an unprecedented era of stagnated prosperity and development, due to the fact that there is no financial institution in Central Texas with sufficient capital to finance the numerous meritorious enterprises and develop latent resources that have so long lain dormant for the lack of sufficient organization capital.

The company will make connections for the outlet and handling of the gilt-edge securities that are being offered and will also thoroughly develop local sources of capital (now being very large), and in this way help to develop the resources of Texas and build up financial institutions at home.

The trust company business is no experiment in Texas, but has been monopolized for the last thirty years by foreign concerns. The time is now ripe for local capital to enter this field and share the business, which combines the greatest securities with the largest profit. The demand for the market for school, county and municipal securities is increasing very rapidly.

It is estimated that there is in Texas alone over $400,000,000 of un-handled land loans seeking capital. These securities bear a higher rate of interest than money commands in the eastern and foreign market.

Texas with four million people has but six or seven trust companies doing an exclusive trust business.

The Continental Trust Company with its large capital, organization and efficient management, will fill the long-felt want in Waco and Central Texas. It is operating under a very broad and liberal Texas charter and has its permit from the secretary of state, and will be ready to begin active business September 1.

CARS CHANGE STOPPING PLACES, THEN TROUBLE

North Fifth Street Passengers Fail to Heed Warning, Wait for Next Car.

Beginning yesterday morning, all Sanger avenue, Provident street, North Ninth and Cotton Palace street cars were stopped on Austin avenue, at Fifth street, instead of on North Fifth street, as formerly. The North Fifth street car was also stopped on Austin avenue instead of on Fifth street. The change was made in order to do away with chances of accidents.

A street car conductor stood at the corner all day advising passengers where the cars would stop but even then a number would not believe him and missed the cars. Several, noticing that the cars did not stop at the accustomed place, ran along the side pouncing on the doors in an effort to attract the attention of the conductor. Several missed a North Fifth street car or two before they finally listened to the advice of the street car conductor and went to the proper corner to board.

Amateur yeggs made an unsuccessful effort to pry open the steel safe in the grocery store of E. D. Bradley, a negro, at 118 Bridge street Tuesday night. They ruined a good hatchet in the task. They knocked off the combination knob and the two safe handles, but this brought them no nearer opening the doors.

FREIGHT BUREAU WOULD STOP SHIPPING DELAYS

TRACING CARD IS MAILED WITH SHIPMENTS—NEW SERVICE ON TEXAS CENTRAL.

The Waco freight bureau has adopted a new follow-up system to locate the delays occasioned in the arrival of freight shipped from Waco. A postal card is sent with all shipments on which the shipper makes a notation of the railroad company to which the shipment was delivered, the time, number of the way bill, date, car number and initials. There is additional space for the receiver of the shipment to receipt for the goods, the time of arrival and the date. This card, which will be mailed back to the shipper, will show how long the shipment was delayed, and it will be later delivered to the freight bureau for that organization to take up the matter of delays, if any were made, with the railway company. The scheme is one of J. C. Dillard's, the traffic manager, and is an effort to determine the character of service the railway companies are affording. The freight bureau also announces that daily freight train service has been installed on the Texas Central, Waco to Cisco, inclusive. The train is designated No. 13 and leaves Waco at 12:30 a. m., arriving at Cisco at 3:30 p. m. Between Waco and other Texas Central points, a tri-weekly service is to be maintained.

RIVALRY FOR SAND CAR PRECIPITATES A FIGHT

COCAINE IS FOUND IN MAN'S POSSESSION—FREE FOR ALL BRIDGE FIGHT.

Chas. Slaughter, a contractor, and Howie Kelley, who works for another contractor, quarreled and fought over the possession of an empty car on the Cotton Belt track at Sixth and Mary streets Wednesday afternoon. Both firms were expecting empty cars to be sent out for them to be loaded with sand.

Kelley brought one load of sand and dumped it in the empty car. Later, Slaughter came along and had two loads of sand loaded in the car. The fight started when Kelley returned with another load of sand.

"This is my car," said Kelley.

"You're wrong—it's mine," replied Slaughter.

They quarreled for several minutes, and then the fight started. Kelley told the police the first intimation of a fight reached him in the form of a brickbat, which caught him in the back of the head. Then he received another blow in the same place. The men were locked in arms when separated. Both were arrested.

Policeman Gentry found three small bottles of cocaine when he arrested Bert O'Neal and a man named Hill near the city hall Wednesday afternoon. O'Neal had told the officer that Hill snatched his pocketbook. Hill was running when he was intercepted.

"I never snatched his pocketbook," exclaimed Hill. "But I got this bottle of coke from him. That is his business—peddling coke."

At headquarters the officers found two bottles of cocaine in O'Neal's hat.

Policeman Gentry and Morgan stopped a free-for-all fight at the east end of the suspension bridge Wednesday morning. They arrested three of the combatants, while the other three fled. Charges of fighting were placed against A. W. Cottrill, Will Brooks and John McCan at police headquarters.

JUDGE NELSON PHILLIPS MAKES VISIT TO WACO

Supreme Court Justice Here on Invitation of a Number of His Friends.

Hon. Nelson Phillips of Dallas, associate justice of the supreme court of Texas, was in the city yesterday, a guest of the State House. Judge Phillips came to Waco on this occasion at the instance of an invitation from Judge W. E. Spell, former Senator Tom P. Stone and several others. He kept up his law business during the past year to accept appointment to the supreme court of Texas, and he is a candidate for re-election in the primaries next Saturday.

Judge Phillips is a native of Jefferson, Texas. He practiced law in Hillsboro for years and was district judge of the district composed of Hill, Johnson and Bosque counties, succeeding Judge Poindexter. After he retired from the bench he moved to Dallas, where he engaged in the active practice of law until he was appointed to the supreme bench. His opponents, Judge Towne, Judge Pleasants and Judge Speer, are all now occupying positions in the service of the state, which will not be disturbed if Judge Phillips is re-elected. He has been less than a year on the bench, but during his incumbency he has participated in all the work of the court. He is a capable lawyer.

While here Judge Phillips met many members of the bar and many citizens, and he received cordial words of encouragement from many of them, including Walter S. Baker, Tom P. Stone, Allan D. Sanford, O. L. Strubling, F. M. Maxwell, J. A. Kibler, T. M. Hamilton and Lud T. Williams.

PLEADS GUILTY WHILE POLICE HUNT FOR HIM

Will Hardy Tells Night Chief Prater He Would Have Done the Same Thing.

Will Hardy entered the city hall last night and walked straight to the police clerk's desk. He pulled a roll of bills from his pocket.

"I've been fighting," he told Night Chief Prater. "I just licked a big guy; didn't like the way he talked. I had a perfect right to do it—you would have done the same thing. I want to plead guilty and pay my fine." Then he related the circumstances.

Two police at that time were investigating a fight on the south side of the square. Charles Denneke, who weighs about 225 pounds, was one of the principals. He was helping the police search for the man that hit him when Hardy was counting out $2.50 to Chief Prater.

Hardy was the man that mixed things with Denneke, it was afterwards learned.

TRADE JUNKETERS WILL MAKE LAST TRIP TODAY

YOUNG MEN'S BUSINESS LEAGUE
EXCURSION LEAVES EARLY FOR GIDDINGS.

Giddings will be the mecca for Waco's trade junketers today. This is the fourth and last of a series of one-day trade trips under the auspices of the Young Men's Business League, and the feature of it is that the women will share the honors of talking about Waco's trade supremacy to the inhabitants of the dozen or more live cities to be visited. A big per cent of the crowd on that special train today will be women, let it be said.

The special train leaves the Union station at 7 o'clock. The siren whistle will blow, as usual, an hour ahead of time. The dusters and the big hats will be used on the trip by the men, the women being allowed to take their choice of uniform.

It is expected that more than 200 people will be passengers on this train. Every one of them will work hard on this trip. The work will consist mainly of talking. Every man and woman will be expected to forget silence and talk—talk about Waco's big things, her big stores, her factories and about all things commercial. They will meet thousands of interested people on this trip, and every one of them will be willing to lend an ear to any remark that concerns Waco. The boosters will return about 10:30 tonight.

RECOMMENDATION FOR BUCHANAN AN OLD ONE

My attention has been called to the fact that Mr. Buchanan has had printed in the newspapers of our city and county, under the heading (it speaks for itself), a recommendation, that I gave to him on leaving my employ some two years ago, and that parties not noticing date of same, thought it to be of recent date. I wish to state that I feel it my duty as a servant of the people at all times to keep good men as my deputies, and when such men leave my office and seek other fields of labor, and ask me to aid them, I take pleasure in doing so by giving them recommendations and assisting them in every way possible. No man can truthfully accuse me of ever failing to stand by and assist any one of my deputies or any friend, and if the people of this county will entrust this high office to my keeping again, I shall in the future as I have in the past, strive hard to keep only the best men in my employ, and shall discharge the duties of said office, with fairness and promptness.

Yours very respectfully,
G. W. TILLEY.

WOMAN HELD CHARGED WITH BEING "WHITE SLAVER"

By The Associated Press.

Philadelphia, July 24.—On the charge of enticing a minor to another state in violation of a federal "white slave" law, a woman giving the name of Anna Marie Wilson was held by a police magistrate here today to await the action of the federal authorities. The woman was arrested in connection with a case where an 18-year-old girl was alleged to have been sent to Tampa, Fla., on a promise of being given a position there.
